

Lancelot is reported ready for a good effort and this is a good spot to grace the winner's circle. Is at peak of form according to railbirds. Gooseberry is a hard hitter and will be in the thick of things at the way. Fettacaln and Mattie J. are both capable of arguing.

Hub, Big Train, Griff Laud Gibson

Such big league big shots of today and yesterday as Clark Griffith, Walter Johnson and Carl Hubbell are all agreed that Josh Gibson is a star who could make good in the fastest company. He does before the baseball jury that sits behind third base at Ebbets Field Sunday when he will be under the bat for the Homestead Grays in their twin bill with the Newark Eagles. Then the verdict is almost sure to become unanimous among magnates, players and fans.

You would think that Hubbell, being a pitcher, would have been impressed by Gibson's mighty bat. But King Carl saw still another reason to clap his hands.

"He's one of the fastest big men I've ever seen," said the Giants' screwball ace, watching the manner in which the Negro handled himself unde the bat and running out his long drives.

anybody you could except the players. And, remember players also let their feelings enter into the matter.

Anyway, the fans saw two storybook games. In the opener Charley Keller's 25th homer with two on and none out in the 10th gave the Yanks a 3-2 win over the Browns.
Bowory hung up a 6-0 win.
